Community School of Music and Arts Students & Faculty
Exhibit Artwork at Mountain View City Hall
January 31-February 21

MOUNTAIN VIEW – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) presents Migration—a collaborative exhibition created by the faculty and students of CSMA’s Art4Schools program in local elementary schools. The exhibit is free and open to the public from January 31-February 21 at the City Hall Rotunda, located at 500 Castro Street in Mountain View. City Hall is open Monday–Friday from 8am-5pm. There will be an artist reception with students and faculty on Friday, February 7 from 3-6pm. The Huff School Honor Choir, led by CSMA music teacher Christina Christiansen-Hedge, will perform at 4pm. The show is generously sponsored by the City of Mountain View, which lends its beautiful rotunda space to this exhibition annually.

On display will be approximately 395 pieces of art by students (grades K-5) and their art teachers from 18 local schools, including every elementary school in the Mountain View Whisman School District (Bubb School, Castro School, Huff School, Landels School, Mistral School, Monta Loma School, Stevenson School, Theuerkauf School and Vargas School). Additional schools are Stocklmeir School and Murdock-Portal School (Cupertino Union School District); Santa Rita School and Springer School (Los Altos School District); St. Nicholas School (Los Altos Hills); Roy Cloud School, Orion Alternative School at John Gill and Roosevelt School (Redwood City School District); and Westlake School (Jefferson Elementary School District). Students at these schools receive weekly art instruction through CSMA’s in-school art education program, Art4Schools.

Both students and their art teachers created pieces inspired by the theme of Migration. Teachers developed classroom lessons to support this concept and encouraged students to experiment with different forms of media. The variety of artwork shows the teachers’ and students’ unique interpretations of the exhibition’s theme.

“Migration. Such a compelling word full of hope and new opportunities,” said Mary Ann Girard, Art4Schools teacher. “The word can be applied in many ways: people in the kitchen migrating towards the chips and dip,... elephants migrating in search of water, paint migrating towards a wet area. Migration is moving from one place to another in search of food, warmth, better opportunities.” This exhibition encourages everyone to think about migration in relation to their surroundings.

Founded in 1968, the Community School of Music and Arts is Northern California’s largest non-profit provider of arts education programs. With a $6 million budget and 160-member staff and faculty, CSMA is one of the ten largest community schools in the United States. Located in the heart of Silicon Valley, CSMA is dedicated to making the arts and arts education accessible to all, regardless of age, experience, background or financial means.
CSMA’s in-school visual art and music programs (Art4Schools and Music4Schools) serve over 21,000 students at 54 schools in Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties. Taught by professionally-trained CSMA art and music faculty as part of the school day, these programs provide quality arts and music education to grades K-8 students through in-depth, sequential curricula that meet California State Educational Standards. The award-winning in-school Art4Schools curriculum develops hands-on technical skills as well as an appreciation and cultural understanding of art and its history. Art lessons coordinate with students’ classroom activities to become an integral, enriching part of each child’s education.
