Community School of Music and Arts Presents

Rock, Feather, Plume by Jennifer Mineer

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – The Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) in Mountain View welcomes Rock, Feather, Plume by artist Jennifer Mineer to CSMA’s Mohr Gallery. The exhibition will be on display through March 22. There will be a closing reception with the artist on Friday, March 22 from 5:30-7:30pm.

The exhibition features Mineer’s photographs of unique stones taken with a special lens and lights in an effort to view the essence of the other world that has been frozen in the quartz. After lifetimes of reaction, the minerals’ movement through the silica is captured and the stone seen today is a record of the passage of time. It is not just a window into another world, but into another time.

Jennifer Mineer creates photographs and jewelry inspired by geology. She received her Bachelor of Fine Art degree from Colorado State University and her Master of Fine Art degree from the University of Oregon. Her work employs a wide range of materials and methodologies, such as lost-wax metal casting. They have been shown in domestic and international galleries. Mineer’s main research focuses on the intersection between digital fabrication and traditional handcraft.
