Community School of Music and Arts Presents On Longing and Other Stories: Prints by Nanette Wylde

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – The Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) in Mountain View welcomes On Longing and Other Stories: Prints by Nanette Wylde to CSMA's Mohr Gallery. The exhibition will be on display from December 14 through January 27. There will be a reception with the artist on Sunday, January 13 from 4-6pm.

The exhibition includes prints and handmade artist's books which contemplate and celebrate various aspects of both the built and the natural world. These narrative works seek to tease out possibilities of interaction including observations, reflections, judgments and habits of thought and non-thought. The works explore ways to engage the minds of the audience (and the maker) with both visual and textual elements.

Nanette Wylde is an artist, writer and cultural worker making socially and environmentally reflective works. Wylde was a teacher in CSMA's in-school arts education program from 1992 - 1994. She has a BA in Behavioral Science from San José State University, and an MFA in Interactive Multimedia and Printmaking from Ohio State University. She is Professor of Art & Art History at California State University, Chico where she developed and heads the Digital Media/Electronic Arts Program. Wylde's interests include: language, personality, difference, beliefs, systems, ideas, movement, reflection, identity, perceptions, structures, stories, socialization, definitions, context, memory, experience, the natural world, change, and residue.
