Community School of Music and Arts Announces the Opening of its Art Faculty Exhibition in Mohr Gallery

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) announces a new exhibition of artworks created by its dedicated teaching artists.

Come and meet the artists in person at their opening reception on Friday, January 24 from 5-7pm at Mohr Gallery, located at 230 San Antonio Circle in Mountain View.

More than 30 works, including paintings, prints, ceramic pieces and jewelry will be on display. The artworks have all been created by teaching artists in CSMA’s onsite art program, in its Arts4Schools program in numerous local elementary schools, and its Corporate Arts program.

One of the teaching artists featured in the show, Alicia Guckenheimer-Harrell, paints to draw attention to the plight of abandoned pets. “Adopt Don’t Shop is the first of many pieces in my Art with Purpose Campaign. My hope with this piece is to quietly teach children about compassion for animals and mother nature.”

This exhibition is an opportunity to learn more about these passionate teachers outside of the classroom setting. The show will run through March 22, 2020.

For more information, please see an interview with a few of the artists on CSMA’s blog: http://arts4all.org/about/news-blog/

In keeping with CSMA’s mission to provide Arts for All, CSMA events are free and open to the public. Located in Mountain View, CSMA provides unique music and visual arts programming and events for audiences of all ages and backgrounds. For a full CSMA event schedule, visit www.arts4all.org.
