Community School of Music and Arts Presents Piano Recital with Merit Scholarship Students of Ludmila Kurtova, February 11, 5pm

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – The Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) in Mountain View presents a piano recital with the Merit Scholarship Students of Ludmila Kurtova on Saturday, February 11 at 5:00pm. The performance will be held in Tateuchi Hall at the Community School of Music and Arts, located at 230 San Antonio Circle in Mountain View. This event is free and open to the public. Seating is limited, so please arrive early. Doors open at 4:30pm.

Ludmila Kurtova is an internationally-acclaimed pianist and a CSMA Distinguished Teacher. In this recital, outstanding Merit Scholarship Students of Ms. Kurtova will perform classical pieces on piano, featuring works from a variety of composers. Performers range in age from 8 to 16 years old. CSMA Merit Scholars are awarded scholarships based on a high-level of commitment, talent and achievement in their music studies. Merit Scholars and their families are regarded as local ambassadors for the CSMA Music School and perform at high-profile events throughout the community.

A world-renowned pianist, Ludmila Kurtova has more than 30 years of performance experience as a member of the Moscow State Philharmonic, an organization of the best musical performers in the former Soviet Union. She is a graduate of the Moscow State Conservatory, one of the world's leading music schools. Her experience includes over 50 recitals per year around the world as a soloist and chamber performer. Ms. Kurtova has received numerous honors, including a United Nations honorary medal.

Ms. Kurtova has taught lessons and master classes at numerous sites throughout Europe. An exceptional educator, she has been a member of the CSMA Faculty since 1998, teaching private piano lessons and chamber music. From 2008-2010, her students won 16 medals, including eight golds, in international piano competitions.

This event is part of CSMA's 2016-2017 Community Concert Series. In keeping with CSMA's mission to provide Arts for All, all Community Concerts are free and open to the public. The Community Concert Series is supported by generous grants from the Applied Materials Foundation and the Los Altos Community Foundation. The official media sponsor for the series is Classical KDFC radio.
