Community School of Music and Arts Invites
Proposals for its 2020-21 Exhibition Season in Mohr Gallery

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) invites visual artists from the Bay Area and beyond to submit proposals to exhibit at Mohr Gallery, a visual arts exhibition gallery located inside CSMA’s Mountain View campus. Proposals will be accepted through October 15, 2019.

Mohr Gallery, founded in 2004, provides an important space for solo and group art exhibitions. In keeping with CSMA’s mission of “Arts for All,” exhibitions are free and open to the public. Past shows have included a wide range of mediums including painting, engraving, ceramic art, installations, photography, textiles, jewelry, metalwork, sculpture, bookmaking and historic artifacts.

The Gallery’s objective is to showcase a broad range of diverse artwork from seasoned professionals, emerging artists and student groups. Artists (for both solo and group shows) are chosen through an open application and juried review process by CSMA’s Visual Arts Committee. “Mohr Gallery has historically shown artists who embody diverse media, backgrounds and subject matter. We would like to continue to exhibit a realistic cross-section of visual artists that represent and appeal to a wide audience,” said Exhibitions Manager Jennifer Mineer.

Founded in 1968, the Community School of Music and Arts is Northern California’s largest non-profit provider of arts education programs. With a $6 million budget and 160-member staff and faculty, CSMA is one of the ten largest community schools in the United States. Located in the heart of Silicon Valley, one of the global capitals of creativity, CSMA is dedicated to making the arts and arts education accessible to all, regardless of age, experience, background or financial means. Headquartered in the award-winning Finn Center in the City of Mountain View, CSMA directly serves nearly 30,000 people of all ages, skill levels and economic means each year, including over 24,000 students at 58 schools in San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.
