Community School of Music and Arts Presents Nathan Martinez, Classical Guitar, November 17

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – The Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) in Mountain View presents a free concert with classical guitarist Nathan Martinez on Saturday, November 17 at 7:30pm. The performance will be held in Tateuchi Hall at the Community School of Music and Arts, located at 230 San Antonio Circle in Mountain View. This concert is free and open to the public. Seating is limited; please arrive early. Doors open at 7:00pm.

Nathan Martinez presents a concert of the beautiful sounds of 20th century France by way of classical guitar. The evening's program will include works by Claude Debussy, Erik Satie, Maurice Ravel, and more.

Classical guitarist Nathan Martinez holds a Master's degree in Guitar Performance from the world-renowned San Francisco Conservatory of Music, after studying under the tutelage of David Tanenbaum. He has performed across the United States at venues including the Caroline H. Hume Concert Hall in San Francisco, the Lange Room at UCSF, the King Concert Hall in Denver, and the historic Skaggs Memorial Chapel in Salt Lake City, Utah. In 2015, he was featured in the winter issue of Classical Guitar magazine, where he aided in showcasing the Harris Guitar Foundation's historical guitar collection. In 2016, he premiered Javier Farias' new piece "Nazcan" with the San Francisco Conservatory of Music's Guitar Ensemble at the Guitar Foundation of America's International Competition and Festival in Denver, Colorado.

This event is part of CSMA's 2018-2019 Community Concert Series. In keeping with CSMA's mission to provide Arts for All, Community Concerts are free and open to the public. Located in Mountain View, CSMA provides unique music and visual arts programming and events for audiences of all ages and backgrounds. The Community Concert Series is supported by a generous grant from the Applied Materials Foundation. The official media sponsor for the series is Classical KDFC radio.
