MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) presents a livestream performance of its talented Merit Scholars performing family duets on Saturday, March 6 at 5:00pm PST on CSMA’s YouTube channel. Go here to set a reminder for the event now: https://youtu.be/DsdXVkumClU

This year had dramatically changed the way musicians interact, forcing us back to a time when families often played music together as a way to entertain themselves. For this special concert, CSMA’s Merit Scholar siblings will be presenting an evening of family duets. These families will perform music from works by Antonio Vivaldi, Carl Maria von Weber, Robert Schumann, Scott Joplin and more.

Welford and Wilona Chen, violin
Christopher and Nicholas Chong, piano
Adeline and Arielle Fam, piano
Rassa and Yassna Khosravi, violin
Jason and Justin Lee, violin & trumpet
Janya and Krithi Sundar, flute & voice
Kallie and Sophie Wang, piano
Alexandra and Daniel Zhupanov, piano

Merit Scholarships are awarded to CSMA private lesson students who have shown a high level of commitment, talent and achievement in their studies. Merit Scholars are nominated by their teachers and must audition before a panel of judges (this year virtually). These young musicians learn valuable skills including training in stage presence, etiquette, rehearsing effectively and building a performance portfolio. They are role models for other students and ambassadors of the CSMA Music School. CSMA Merit Scholars have been accepted to prestigious music programs across the country. This event is part of CSMA’s 2020-2021 Community Concert Series. In keeping with CSMA’s mission to provide Arts for All, Community Concerts are free and open to the public. CSMA provides unique music and visual arts programming and events for audiences of all ages and backgrounds.
