Community School of Music and Arts Presents
Pianist Sarah Cahill’s The Future is Female: A Celebration of the Centennial of the 19th Amendment on March 20

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) presents pianist Sarah Cahill’s The Future is Female: A Celebration of the Centennial of the 19th Amendment. Her performance will be held on Saturday, March 20 at 7:30pm PST and live-streamed on CSMA’s YouTube channel. Go here to set a reminder for the event now: https://youtu.be/abpQqmtF1ig

Cahill’s The Future is Female: A Celebration of the Centennial of the 19th Amendment celebrates female composers to mark the centennial of women gaining the right to vote. Her program will feature classical works by women around the globe from the 18th century to the present day. About the project, Cahill says: “It’s time that classical music becomes more inclusive, more representative and more equitable.” Learn more about Sarah Cahill on the Arts4All blog.

This evening’s program will include:
Hélène de Montgeroult, Sonata No. 9, Opus 5 No. 3
Clara Schumann, Variations Op. 20
Teresa Carreño, "Un rêve en mer"
Amy Beach, "Dreaming"
Vítězslava Kaprálová, "April Prelude" No. 1 and 3
Margaret Bonds, "Troubled Water"

Sarah Cahill is an American pianist, writer, producer and radio host who is based in the Bay Area. She has been hailed as “a sterling pianist and an intrepid illuminator of the classical avant-garde” by The New York Times and “a brilliant and charismatic advocate for modern and contemporary composers” by Time Out New York. She has worked closely with composers Terry Riley, Lou Harris and Aki Takahashi, and has performed classical and contemporary chamber music with artists such as Jessica Lang Dance, Joseph Kubera and Regina Myers. She is the host of KALW’s “Revolutions Per Minute.”

Founded in 1968, the Community School of Music and Arts is Northern California’s largest non-profit provider of arts education programs. With a $6 million budget and 160-member staff and faculty, CSMA is one of the ten largest community schools in the United States. Located in the heart of Silicon Valley, CSMA is dedicated to making the arts and arts education accessible to all, regardless of age, experience, background or financial means.
This event is part of CSMA’s 2020-2021 Community Concert Series. In keeping with CSMA’s mission to provide Arts for All, Community Concerts are free and open to the public. CSMA provides unique music and visual arts programming and events for audiences of all ages and backgrounds.
