Community School of Music and Arts Presents

Exploring Equity and Justice through Song

Performed by Von Bringhurst and Ihang Lin on June 19

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) presents Exploring Equity and Justice through Song performed by two CSMA faculty members, countertenor Von Bringhurst and pianist Ihang Lin on Saturday, June 19 at 7:30 pm PDT. The concert will be live-streamed on CSMA's YouTube channel. Go here to set a reminder for the event now: https://youtu.be/IZi6LTN-Qz4.

In the final concert of CSMA's 2020-2021 Community Concert Series, Von Bringhurst will sing the music of queer/femme/female composers and composers of color. Bringhurst says his goal for the concert is to “talk about these composers’ struggles and how we as humans can learn from them to make the world around us better for everyone.”

This evening’s program will include music from Samuel Barber, Lili Boulanger, Nadia Boulanger, Benjamin Britten, Aaron Copland, John Dowland, Reynaldo Hahn, Antônio Carlos Jobim, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Shirley Jones, Gian Carlo Menotti, Damien Rice & Ana Carolina Souza, Richard Rogers & Lorenz Hart and Meredith Wilson. Learn more about Bringhurst on the Arts4All blog.

Von Bringhurst has performed as a soloist and ensemble member across the country with groups such as Força Chorus, Harvard Early Music Society, Iberica Early Music Festival, Metro Stage Company, Video Game Orchestra, Xerces Blue Ensemble, the choir of St. Paul’s Harvard Square and others. He has been heard on a number of video game titles, including Ace Combat and Final Fantasy XV. He is a founding member of Genesis Chamber Singers. Bringhurst received his Masters of Music in Vocal Performance from the Longy School of Music of Bard College. He teaches Voice at CSMA.

Ihang Lin made her Carnegie Hall debut in 2012 performing piano solo works by Maurice Ravel. Her professional awards include First Prize in the 2009 Aaron Richmond Piano Competition and the special recognition award in the 2012 San Antonio International Piano Competition. She has
