CSMA CELEBRATES THE ARTS

Saturday, March 6, 2027
5:00-9:30 PM
Sharon Heights
Golf and Country Club
2900 Sand Hill Road, Menlo Park

Enjoy a magical evening of live music, art, wine, and fine dining while supporting CSMA's mission of providing equitable access to the arts.

ABOUT CSMA

The Community School of Music and Arts is Northern California's largest nonprofit provider of arts education programs. CSMA serves 28,000 people of all ages, abilities, and financial means each year. Proceeds from the gala provide program subsidies and financial aid to students without access to the arts.

SPONSORSHIP

Corporate and individual sponsors play a vital role in sustaining inclusive arts education and expanding programs like Artistic Intelligence. Sponsorship provides high-visibility recognition while making a meaningful investment in access, equity, and community impact. For sponsorship opportunities, please contact:

Chiung-chi Chen
Director of Development
650-917-6800 ext. 303
cchen@arts4all.org

Past corporate sponsors have included Google, Applied Materials, Asset Management Company, LinkedIn, First Citizens Bank, Prometheus, Swenson Builders, De Mattei Construction, Sares Regis Group of Northern California, and Wilson Sonsini Goodrich Rosati Foundation.

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

GOLD SPONSOR ($15,000)

- Premier seating for one table of 10
- Recognized in all publicity
- Full-page ad in the Event Program
- Logo recognition on arts4all.org
- Estimated tax-deductible portion: $12,000

SILVER SPONSOR ($7,000)

- Reserved seating for table of 8
- Recognized in all publicity
- Half-page ad in the Event Program
- Logo recognition on arts4all.org
- Estimated tax-deductible portion: $4,600

BRONZE SPONSOR ($4,250)

- Reserved seating for table of 8
- Recognized in all publicity
- Quarter-page ad in the Event Program
- Logo recognition on arts4all.org
- Estimated tax-deductible portion: $1,850

FRIENDS OF CSMA ($1,200)

- Two reserved-seating tickets
- Recognized in the Event Program
- Estimated tax-deductible portion: $600

CSMA is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
Federal Tax ID: 23-7023900.

